Is the thief of time.
This is why some people fail to get a photograph.
The instantaneous process
removes old time objections.

H. W. Craig,

The Marietta Picture Man.

February 1st

We begin invoicing and as we can invoice cash easier than goods we propose to convert our goods into cash, no matter what it costs. Overcoats, boys' and men's suits, shirts, underwear, hats, caps, neckwear and all kinds of men's furnishing, in fact everything we have in stock will be sold at a figure that will make them go. They are truly BARGAINS. Take advantage of them while they last.

Yours to please.

MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 22, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Reserved seats on sale Tuesday morning at the Marietta Book Store for "Tim, The Tinker."

—Harry Aslett, night operator in the telephone exchange, is laid up with a slight sickness. Miss Kittie Schmidt is filling his place.

—The six new passenger engines of the B. & O. S. W. arrived here yesterday, and were greatly admired by a large crowd of people, both yesterday and today. They were numbered respectively 140, 141, 142, 143, 144 and 145. The first three will remain on this division, while the others will be transferred to the Mississippi division. Chilliote's Gazette.

—Pat Donnelly, the proprietor of the Delmonico restaurant and prominent real estate dealer, of Marietta, was in the city yesterday.—Cambridge Sun.

—Mrs. Hays, whose funeral occurred at Newport yesterday, was a sister of Mrs. Dr. McClure, of this city; of Hon. J. B. Greene, of Newport, and of Mrs. F. S. Pearce and Mrs. Luther Dana, formerly of Marietta.

—Conductor Hendershot, of the B. & O. S. W., who was discharged from that company for the reason that he was responsible for the disastrous wreck recently at Schooley's applied to the O. R. R. officials several days ago for a position. He was told that the company was not in need of any men through whose negligence a lot of people were slaughtered. He replied that he would be satisfied to go back to braking on a freight train where he would not have a chance to cause any one injury. It is needless to state that he did not get a job.—Sentinel.

—Miss Jessie Lovell returned Tuesday from a visit of several weeks at Joy, O.

—Receiver T. D. Dale, of the T. & O. C. Ex. Ry., is in New York City on a business trip.

—The Building Committee of the Presbyterian church have placed on exhibition in the window of H. W. Craig a fine water color picture of the proposed new structure.

—Carl Mueller arrived home from Cincinnati Tuesday evening. He has just recovered from a two month's seige of typhoid fever.

—At Guyardotte, Saturday night, burglars forced an entrance into both the Ohio River and C. & O. railroad depots. At the former place some express packages and $25 worth of merchandise, as well as a large number of unstamped tickets, were stolen. At the latter place two revolvers and about 100 tickets were taken.

—A number of Parkersburg gentlemen have subscribed a fund for the purchase of two English bloodhounds to be used in tracking criminals in that city.

—J. W. Whiteraft, Route Agent of the Adams Express Company, was in the city Tuesday.

—The delinquent tax sale Tuesday was very small, evidencing an unusual degree of prosperity among farmers.

—Architect Kahn has submitted the plans for the new Presbyterian church. He has designed a handsome structure, which appears to meet the approval of all concerned.

—The subject for the special service at the First M. E. church this evening will be "Go Home and tell them, etc."

—City Clerk Becker received a letter Tuesday from a Miss Spencer, of Elizabeth, N. J., inquiring for facts concerning her great grandfather, Alexander Oliver, who came to Marietta in 1790.

—Prof. H. E. Smith bought of Mr. John Kaiser yesterday 50 by 65 feet on Second, above Washington. Price $800.

—Postoffice Clerk Edward Best, who has been ill of intermittent fever for several weeks, was reported worse yesterday.

—William H. Cole, who lives just east of the city, suffered an accidental fall Tuesday and was slightly bruised.

—A license was issued in Probate Court Tuesday evening for the marriage of Mr. Rufus E. Geyer and Miss Bertha A. Krigbaum, both of this city. The ceremony was performed the same evening at the Baptist parsonage by Dr. Gear. The bride and groom are well known young people, the former the daughter of the late Capt. Krigbaum.

—Pitt Racer, one of the oldest and best known residents of the city, died Thursday afternoon, of disease incident to old age. He was in his 80th year and quite feeble. The death of his wife occurred only a few months ago. The funeral will take place Thursday at an hour to be announced later.

—Mrs. Jonathan Dye, of Warren street, celebrates her 84th birthday this week. Her grandson, Alexander Lamb, with his mother, is spending the week with Mrs. Dye. Mr. Lamb has recently been appointed at New York on the staff of Commander Ballington Booth. He is now having a much needed rest from over work.

—Beautiful scenery, strong dramatic acting, comedy, and good singing dancing and fine music in "Tim, The Tinker," Thursday night.

—J. C. Robinson, of Athens, is in the city.

—O. K. Hamilton yesterday bought of J. H. McCulloch the lot on Fifth street between the residences of Mrs. M. N. Buell and Mr. Fred Ebinger. The lot is 45 by 93 feet, and brought $1,500. We understand that Mr. Hamilton will build upon the lot.

—Council failed to have a meeting last evening, there not being enough members present to constitute a quorum.

—W. E. Jumper, the liveryman of Beverly, was in the city on business Tuesday.

—John E. Raney, agent of the Jarack Chemical Company, is in the city.

—The body of Brakeman Weaver, who was killed on the C. & M. Ry. Monday, was taken to Summerfield Tuesday morning, accompanied by the deceased man's family and several members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

—Prof. W. G. Bonsell was alone in his trouble in police court Tuesday morning. He was assessed five dollars and costs for intoxication.

—Dr. E. H. Trickle, assignee of E. J. Morris, filed the report of the first dividend Tuesday morning. The first payment to creditors is 36 per cent.

—The Columbia is the name of a new vaudeville theatre at Sistersville. Characteristic of the town, the new structure was begun only two weeks ago and the first night's performance was given without rehearsal.

—"You die; we'll do the rest," is the advertisement of a Sistersville undertaker.

—Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Preston left yesterday for McConnelsville to attend a Masonic function in that city.

—Mrs. Dr. Will Hart, Fourth street, is confined to the house by a sprained ankle and an attack of sciatic rheumatism.

—Mr. H. M. Wilson, President of the National Supply Company, with headquarters at Pittsburg, was in the city Tuesday.

—The Showalter lecture at the West Side M. E. Church Monday gave such enjoyment to those present that arrangements will be made for another lecture here by Mr. Showalter at an early date.

—Charles Langenberg, of Beverly, was in the city on legal business Tuesday.

—C. W. Haines, of Big Run, O., is in the city, the guest of G. W. and J. H. Yerian.

—In the third act Thursday night is a scene at Battery Park, New York. In this act Tim, The Tinker, will introduce his solo clog, also specialties by the child Little Winnie, Mollie O'Brien, Jerry Brady and Slick Bill.

Choral Society—First Concert Season of '95-'96.

At the Auditorium last evening was held one of the finest and most satisfactory concerts ever given by the Marietta Choral Society.

A very attractive program was arranged—one that was well suited to the popular taste. Chourses and old English part songs were well rendered to a grateful audience.

Miss Willia Ward appeared to great advantage, and sang two beautiful songs—one of them "Il Bacio," especially displaying her very pretty and well ordered voice.

Of course the young lad, Francis McMillen, was the stellar attraction. His playing on the violin is a truly wonderful performance. The boy—only ten years old—is a veritable genius and is rapidly becoming a master of the most difficult of musical instruments. Francis is a self-possessed little fellow, and goes into his work with a will. He is really wonderful, and has in him the promise of a musician of the highest order.

The audience was a large one, and enjoyed every number hugely. The chorus singing was beautifully done, reflecting great credit on the drilling of Mr. Bird. The orchestra—Arnold's, of course—was in fine form, and played several charming numbers marvelously well.

To Tax Mortgages.

Mr. Workman of Knox county will introduce a bill in the house providing for the regulation and taxation of mortgages. It is quite lengthy and will, if enacted into a law, virtually amount to a single tax upon real estate, as it provides that if a man owns a piece of property which is mortgaged, he is not taxed for the full value of the property but the mortgage he owes is deducted. All holders of mortgages are required to list the same for taxation, and if they fail to do so, the county recorder shall turn over to the auditor a statement showing the mortgages in force in the county. If the holder is a non-resident and the mortgage is not taxed the auditor shall put it on the tax duplicate and it operates as a lien upon the mortgage and the tax will have to be paid before it is released.

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.

MARRIED AT MIDNIGHT.

Miss Maude Peters Becomes Mrs. Dudley Ferguson.

Just at midnight last night a wedding was performed at the Unitarian parsonage which made Miss Maude K. Peters and Mr. Dudley Ferguson one.

Quietly, after Mr. Ferguson, who is a clerk at the St. Cloud Hotel, was relieved from duty, he, with his bride to be, and several friends, repaired to the Rev. Mr. Coll's, and that gentleman pronounced the solemn words which joined the two young people in wedlock.

Witnessing the ceremony were Mrs. R. W. Robertson, Mrs. G. M. Miles, Mr. H. F. Kraft, Mr. R. W. Richardson and a leader representative.

The couple, whom we wish much joy, will leave this morning for Watertown, where the groom's father, Mr. H. C. Ferguson, resides; and from there they will go to Zanesville, and remain until Monday of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will reside at Marietta, and will, for the present, board.

Their many friends will be glad to extend congratulations.

The well on the Jim Hammet farm on Eureka due north of the "Big Jim" 600 feet on the lease by Sullivan, Royer Boyer and Caldwell, will be drilled to see if the pool goes in that direction. The Big Jim is too good a well not to come from a pool of some size. The failures of the other wells drilled, on Kester (east), on McTaggart (southwest), on the Ruckman (south), on the Hammett west seem to shut up the outlook to a north or northeast line. The Sullivan well will therefore be watched with great interest.—Parkersburg Journal.
